Read chapters 5-6 of Lord of the Flies either online at above link or with a text to be picked up at the school. Complete study guide for chapters 5-6, if needed, to help you comprehend the chapters, but I will not be collecting them. It will be sent via e-mail. Participate in group discussion (via e-mail or other medium) Thursday, April 9 at 10:00 a.m. or answer the discussion questions for chapters 5-6 and submit by Friday, April 10 via e-mail. These will be sent via e-mail to those who do not participate in group discussion.

Pick one of the teachers you thought about last week (remember they can be from K-12) and make a list of qualities of that teacher. Include things like looks, quirks, habits, phrases they say, actions, situations etc. Keep this list and add to it as you think of things. I will not be collecting them. Read the sample essay by Kama Konda and send me a couple of specific comments/your thoughts on it by 4:00 Friday, April 10.

Read chapters 5-6 of Lord of the Flies either online at above link or with a text to be picked up at the school. Complete study guide for chapters 5-6 (sent via-email or picked up at school) and submit by Friday, April 10 at 4:00. Continue to add to the map of the island. Add those items that are marked 5 or 6 and that go along with these chapters.

Do rough draft of the "Teacher to Remember" essay. The official assignment will be sent to you via e-mail.

Speech

This entire week I want you to take notes/get information that you can use for your informative speech. Remember to keep track of the source information (title, author, date it was published, date you went on site, etc.) as you will need it for a works cited page at the end. By end of the week you should be pretty well done with note taking.

Remember you need at least 3 sources but can use more than that if you wish. At least one source must be a site that isn't a .com site. I suggest going to this site <https://library.sd.gov/> and then go to databases and click on it. They are then in alphabetical order. A couple I would recommend are ProQuest Research Library and MAS Ultra School Edition. Many of them would be good for you. Be sure to keep track of the sources you use because you will need that later.

Due by Friday, April 10 at 4:00 is 3 interesting things about your topic.
