Google Classroom

Students can submit their answers on the Google Doc that is attached to each lesson.

Details:

Students are to read through the material, watch the presentation (if able) and take notes off of the PowerPoint.

For the 54th Massachusetts lesson, there are 10 comprehensive questions based off of the ReadWorks article that can be answered on Google Classroom. There will also be 3 questions on the same document about the video presentation. If you are unable to view the video, you can skip these questions.

For the Sherman's March/Total War lesson, there are 4 Soldier's letters (2 Union, 2 Confederate). On the Google Doc, there are 5 questions that I would like you to answer. Use information directly from the letters to help you answer.

Example: "In Thomas Wright's letter, he says that he experienced a number of hardships including sickness, losing friends and the weather."

Due Date/Time:

Both assignments are due Friday April 3rd @ 9:00 PM

Other information:

Remember to take notes! There will be a quiz over this material in the next couple weeks. If you have questions or concerns, please let me know!

If you cannot open the Google Docs, I will send you a Word document where you can put the information in, then you can send it back to me.

I would like to host a Google Meet with my students to answer questions and check up on them during the times listed below on Fridays during the closure. If students are unable to attend, that is fine.
